

Talking Business with Taylor Made Designs

With the growing season in full swing, now is the perfect time for the staff at Stewarts garden centres, to show off their bright new uniforms.

Supplying A Bright New Look

The new uniforms have been supplied by local Christchurch company, Taylor Made Designs, who sourced the clothing especially to suit Stewarts requirements. The two companies share the same enthusiasm to ensure the perfect outcome.

James Taylor, Managing Director at Taylor Made Designs, worked with Terry Head, head of retail at Stewarts, to provide the perfect colours to match the Stewarts logo, which has been embroidered onto all the uniforms. The staff at both Stewarts Christchurch and Stewarts Broomhill have a mix and match choice of raspberry or green shirts with green sweatshirts and soft shell jackets.

Terry Head commented, "With the busy growing season upon us I wanted our staff to be totally prepared in every way. We want our staff to wear their uniform with pride and for customers to easily identify staff members with our corporate colours. We have enjoyed working with Taylor Made Designs and we are very pleased with the quality and the support they have provided."

James Taylor was delighted to supply the uniforms to the family-run business, "We supply uniforms, promotional items and corporate gifts throughout the country.

Our unit is located in Christchurch and so it was a real pleasure to work with a local company that has been established since 1742, and has so much pride in their history and their staff."
